Alexander Hughes expands its operations in Greater China

Alexander Hughes – the global Executive Search firm headquartered in Paris celebrating its 60 years' anniversary this year, expands its organization in Greater China.

While Alexander Hughes has been operating in Greater China - Shanghai, Taipei and Hongkong - since 2011, today, the firm strengthens its commitment to the Chinese market, significantly developing its operations through the integration of the Executive Search arm of China Integrated.

The Greater China team will be under Nicolas MUSY leadership, appointed Managing Partner Greater China, Nicolas is a seasoned professional with extensive experience on the Chinese market. Nicolas and his team of search professionals, four partners and support staff will contribute to speed up Alexander Hughes developments efforts on the Chinese market.

Alexander Hughes today is one of the few, fully integrated search firms offering Executive Search and other leadership services on a global basis. Expanding the company's reach in Greater China forms part of a broader strategy implemented over the years to support an ever-expanding global client base and grow at an accelerated pace beyond the company's original European territory.

Nicolas MUSY said: "I am extremely proud and honoured to take on this responsibility and I am convinced that together with the current and new members of our Greater China team we will manage to leverage the position we have gained in Shanghai to all the large and dynamic and Asian markets."

"Having an office and a strong team in Shanghai will spark new synergies and create new business opportunities beyond the Asia Pacific region." Said Jim CROWE, Managing Partner Hong-Kong.

"The core values of our Group and its commitment to excellence have been the driving force of Alexander Hughes for the last couple of decades. During the last few years, our strategy has been to export our model outside Europe and build a strong brand, by creating a fully integrated, global firm, with the same quality standards everywhere, in EMEA, Asia-Pacific or the Americas. Today, we are signaling our strong commitment to the high-growth Chinese market, which we believe can become one of our largest market outside Europe in the years to come" said Julien ROZET, CEO of Alexander Hughes.
