

Alexander Hughes Expands US Presence with Strategic Acquisition

Alexander Hughes, a global firm specializing in executive search and leadership advisory, is taking a major step forward with the strategic acquisition of DSML Executive Search in the United States. This expansion marks a critical milestone in Alexander Hughes' global growth strategy, positioning the firm as the global executive search and leadership advisory firm of choice, while bringing a wealth of industry expertise to its US operations.

Paris, Thursday, January 25, 2024 - Alexander Hughes, a leading global executive search and leadership consultancy, is pleased to announce the strategic acquisition of DSML Executive Search, a well-established executive search firm based in the United States. The move marks a significant milestone in Alexander Hughes' global growth strategy, positioning the firm as the global executive search and leadership firm of choice for businesses and corporations worldwide.

The acquisition includes two new offices, one in Chicago and one in Boston. In addition, Alexander Hughes will retain Myriam Le Cannellier, co-founder and director of DSML Executive Search, who becomes the Managing Partner of Alexander Hughes USA, and her team of highly experienced executive search professionals. Their extensive local sector knowledge and industry expertise will strengthen Alexander Hughes' presence in the US and facilitate the creation of synergies and the expansion of the service offering for global companies operating in the US as well as for American companies operating abroad.

Julien Rozet, CEO of Alexander Hughes, said: "This acquisition marks a pivotal moment for our group. We are very proud to strengthen our presence in the US and to have Myriam Le Cannellier and her team at the helm. Her expertise aligns perfectly with our commitment to deliver the highest standard of executive search and leadership advisory services globally."

Myriam Le Cannellier said: "We are thrilled to join a firm with whom we share strong values – this will allow us to serve our clients even better, in the US and globally".
